You may go to YouTube and watch a video on Catholic Charities.

Starting this Sunday, February 2nd, the Society of Saint Gregory the Great Ordinariate group will begin to celebrate Evening Prayers on Sundays at 5:00 pm instead of having Mass at 11:00 am. The Society feels this service will better serve its mission and the people of Mobile. The Ordinariate Service of Evening Prayer is rich in scripture readings, psalms and hymns and has been celebrated in the same fashion for almost 500 years. All are invited to this wonderful celebration each week.

In observance of St. Blaise's feast day, we will be blessing the throats this weekend at both Masses immediately after the final prayer.

Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers, please pick up your February assignments in the vestibule.
