Six Ways of Cultivating a Strong Church Community Be warm and welcoming – approach them with a smile and a handshake.

Help parents with children - help the parents locate the cry room.
Share a church bulletin – if you see a new person or family, offer them a program or guest packet.

Invite visitors to an upcoming event – all people long to belong, so do your part to help new folks find points of connection.

Be a bridge to your minister – see that the new people meet the pastor.

Tell visitors what you love about your church – everyone knows the best recommendations come from “word of mouth.”
