In today's Gospel Jesus is asked about evil. Why do some people die in tragic accidents or as a result of meaningless violence? Jesus responds that these events remind us that life is unpredictable, that we should make ourselves ready to meet God at any moment. As we continue this Lenten season, let's pray together to resolve to make each day, each minute count.

There will be a second collection this weekend for Easter Flowers. You may note on your envelope the names of people you want to give flowers in memory of. Next weekend there will be a Second Collection for Catholic Relief. This Collection supports six Catholic agencies that touch more than 100 million lives around the world.

PILGRIMAGE SUNDAY: You are invited to join us this Sunday for a Visitation to seven churches. We will gather at 1:00 pm here at our church and go, first to the Cathedral, then to Prince of Peace, St. Matthew, Little Flower, St. Mary, St. Joseph, then back to our church for Benediction. At each church we will hear the history of the church for 5 minutes, and pray a decade of the Rosary for five minutes. Estimated completion 3-4 hours.

SPRING AHEAD: Daylight Savings Time will begin next Sunday. Remember to set your clocks AHEAD one hour Saturday pm.

Have you taken a Rice Bowl and placed it on your dining table for Lent? Have a Sacrificial meal one day a week and place the equivalent amount in the bowl for the hungry. Let it be your offertory gift on Holy Thursday.

During Lent we pray the Rosary at 5:10 pm every day, then celebrate Mass at 5:30 pm. Come join us.

On Wednesdays of Lent CONFESIONS are heard from 6:00 till 8:00. Come and prepare for Easter.

On Fridays of Lent we meditate on the STATIONS OF THE CROSS at 5:00 pm, followed by Mass at 5:30.

Last weekend's collection was $2,707.00.

YOUNG ADULT RETREAT: Saturday, March 16, 8:30 am – 5:30 pm at the Shrine of the Holy Cross in Daphne. Register by March 8. For info call 621-9793.

Secular Servite Meeting: Archbishop Emeritus Lipscomb will discuss Marian Devotion; 10 am March 9, St. Catherine's Parish Hall. Call 473-4804.

The Annual "A Taste of St. Catherine" is scheduled for 6:30 pm Saturday, March 23. Get out your cookbooks, find your favorite recipes and contact us to register no later than March 20. Or if you would enjoy tasting many delicious dishes, come join us. Call 583-2187.
