DO YOU LOVE ME? There is a moving scene in the play, Fiddler on the Roof. Tevye and his wife Golda are being forced to move from their home in Russia. One day Tevye asked Golda, “Do you love me?” “Do I what?” “Do you love me?” Golda looks at him and responds: “Do I love you? With our daughters getting married and trouble in town, you’re upset. You’re worn out. Go lie down. Maybe it’s indigestion.” Tevye interrupts and asks again, “Golda, do you love me?” Golda sighs, looks at him and says, “Do I love you? For 25 years I’ve washed your clothes, cooked your meals, cleaned your house, given you children, milked the cows. After 25 years, why talk of love right now?” Tevye answers by saying, “Golda, the first time I met you was on our wedding day. I was scared. I was shy. I was nervous”. “So was I”, said Golda, “but my father and mother said we’d learn to love each other.” “Now I’m asking, Do you love me?” Golda sighs. “For 25 years I’ve lived with you, fought with you; 25 years my bed is yours. If that’s not love, what is?” “Then you do love me?” Tevye asks. “I suppose I do!” “Do you love me?” is the same question Jesus asks Peter, and you and me today!

We welcome back our reconditioned organ this weekend! Richard Jones, our organist, has been watching over it with great care and is excited about playing it again. He has also worked closely with the people who did the work, opening and closing the church and pointing out things to them. Thanks, Richard!

WELCOME MARIA ABRAHAM into our Church family at this Saturday Mass when she will be Baptized. God bless you, Jason and Linsey. We offer to stand with you, your parents, Godparents and friends who come to celebrate her Baptism.

Every Sunday we gather in our parish hall for coffee and refreshments after mass. We are grateful to Ed and Ann Olsen who always arrive early to make the coffee and often provide things to eat with the coffee. BUT we need your help. Will you be so kind as to sign up for a Sunday for this social? It is much more than coffee. It gives us the opportunity to get to know one another better. Please help.

Last week we were billed to pay the Archdiocese:

- Total: $20,054.92. ($20,000 taken from savings) Last Sunday’s collection was $1,811

Flowers on the altar are given in memory of Murble Chavis by the Presley and Chavis families.
