Prayer Before a Trip

What is it about a trip that brings these unsettled feelings, Lord? I have done all I could to prepare for it – rechecking arrangements, notifying neighbors and packing extras of nearly everything. Still I feel tense and unsure. Perhaps it is that a trip always involves a bit of the unknown, with unfamiliar roads and strange faces, with such disturbing incidents throughout today's world that it would be far easier simply to stay home. I have waited so long for this time off, saved for it and yet part of me feels guilty about the expense involved and my time off from obligations.

There's the question of safety, too, and my mind races with thoughts of trouble or problems. I guess the real problem is me. I have difficulty enjoying changes or even welcoming changes like trips. And while I cannot help but think of those dangerous, unexpected trips Your Mother Mary made to keep You safe in Your early days, I cannot help but be fearful.

Calm my fears so I may rest well and begin this trip refreshed in mind and body.

I turn this trip over to You, confident that having done all I could,
You will give me strength to meet what lies ahead.

Prayer in Honor of St. Dymphna

Lord, our God, you graciously chose St. Dymphna as a patroness of those afflicted with mental and nervous disorders. She is thus an inspiration and a symbol of charity to the thousands who ask her intercession.
Please grant, Lord, through the prayers of this pure youthful martyr, relief and consolation to all suffering such trials and especially those for whom we pray (mention that person).
Give patience to caregivers.

We beg you, Lord, to hear the prayers of St. Dymphna on our behalf. Grant all those for whom we pray patience in their sufferings and resignation to Your divine will. Please fill them with hope and grant them relief and cure they so much desire. We ask this through Christ our Lord who suffered agony in the garden. Amen.
