CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

Catholic Charities Appeal Sunday is January 24th. The appeal supports more than 30 ministries across the Archdiocese of Mobile. These ministries feed the hungry, clothe the naked, assist the elderly and those with disabilities, help a family adopt a child, provide life sustaining medication for those who cannot afford it, strengthen the faith of our youth, minister to the imprisoned, love the abandoned, and even give hope to the unborn.

GENERATIONS OF FAITH

As of this week we have reached 71% of our goal of $160,000 with total pledges of $113,461. The parish will receive 20% of these gifts until the goal is met and 80% of donations above the goal.
These funds will be used to take care of parish needs, including upgrades to the Hall of Angels. Thank you to all who have so generously participated to date.
If you have not been contacted yet, a volunteer should be in touch soon.

POPE FRANCIS ON MERCY

“But before we do anything, our life is marked by the mercy that has been set upon us. We have been saved for free.
Salvation is free. It’s the free gesture of God’s mercy upon us. Sacramentally this is done on the day of our Baptism; but also those who are not baptized receive God’s mercy always, because God is there, wait, wait for the doors of hearts to be opened. He comes near, may I say, caresses us with his mercy.”
