SALVADOR

Drought has become a big problem across El Salvador, making it difficult for farmers to produce enough crops to support their families. But new farming techniques – and a new generations of young farmers – are making a difference. What would you do if your livelihood was threatened? How can you support young people in your community and around the world? Visit crsricebowl.org. CRS Rice Bowls are in the vestibule – take one home today.

REFLECTION

“Jesus died not only because we killed Him, but He died for us. Dying on the Cross, He saved us. He suffered and died for us. In the Church’s liturgy, we call the cruel Passion of the Lord “blessed”, because it is the source of our rebirth and of our happiness. Never again, therefore, will the cross be a place of ignominious death, but rather a symbol of victory. We can, if we so desire, receive from the tears, blood and death of Christ our joy, hope, and salvation.” – Pope St. Paul VI at the end of the Way of the Cross at the Colosseum, 12 April 1968.
